

Themed inspection programmes

Our programme of themed inspections enables us to look in more detail at specific areas. This enables us to understand more following any trends we see in statutory notifications or from concerns that we find in our planned inspections. We can then make recommendations to employers to improve.