

Criteria for making a notification

The following tables detail the criteria for notifying the appropriate enforcing authority of a significant accidental or unintended exposure.

Note: In England only, there are age-related dose thresholds for notifications of accidental exposures.